

Hey Tiger (2007)

Hey Tiger: I see you waking from your lair
Hey Tiger: I see your claws, they must be sharp
Hey Tiger: your shiny coat is very soft
Hey Tiger

And you're hunting now, I see your hunger
The thing you're hunting for just slipped away
But you are ready now, your eyes are burning
I know that soon: you'll find your prey

Hey Tiger: I see you waking from your lair
Hey Tiger: I see your teeth they must be sharp
Hey Tiger: your shiny coat is very soft (I think I'd like to make it mine)
Hey Tiger: why don't you stop by my place tonight
Hey Tiger: I think you're tired of all that fighting
Hey Tiger: I've got a secret you'd like to know
 But you'll have to come to my door
Hey Tiger: I see you waking from your lair
Hey Tiger
